Accommodation for 2 nights at Sable Sands Camp or similar

Days 6 – 7 Lake Kariba, Zimbabwe

Drive to Binga at the south eastern shore of Lake Kariba where you board a luxury houseboat for a relaxing two night trip. Nestled in mountains, Lake Kariba is a man-made inland sea with enormous game reserves at its shoreline. Cruise to the Sengwe River for afternoon wildlife activities followed by sunset drinks and dinner on board. In the morning it's an early start to enjoy game viewing activities, guided walks or fishing depending on your preference. Return to your houseboat where brunch is served on board while you cruise to Elephant Bay to moor at one of the islands with a sandy beach. Watch another amazing sunset over the lake then relax around a camp fire enjoying a beach barbecue under the starry sky.

Houseboat – cabins with ensuite shower & toilet, plunge pool, dining salon

Days 8 – 9 Matobo Hills, Zimbabwe

End your houseboat experience with a morning game viewing activity on the Lake then cruise back to Binga. After disembarking, travel south to the majestic Matobo Hills, an area of dramatic rock landscapes steeped in tribal history. Explore this area of ancient mystery, once the home of the San (Bushman), rich in rock art it has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage site. It is home to black and white rhino and the world's densest population of leopard. Birdlife is prolific including the highest concentration of black eagles in the world. The Ndebele people buried their great king Mzilikazi here and it is also the place that Cecil John Rhodes was laid to rest at 'World's View'. Spend the next day in the national park, starting our morning with tracking rhino spoor by vehicle and on foot. In the afternoon explore the scenery and wildlife of the park on game drives, ending with a visit to Rhode's grave.

Driving: 485km

Accommodation: 2 nights at Camp Amalinda or similar. Camp has a pool, bar & restaurant

Days 10 Matobo Hills - Nata, Botswana

Drive through the savannah of southern Matabeleland to the Nata Bird Sanctuary, where you have the opportunity to enjoy the magnificent view over the Sowa pan which is part of the Greater Makgadikgadi Pans, and area of distinctive landscapes and extraordinary creatures. Please note, a visit to the Pans is subject to the road conditions and water levels as well as time constraints.

Driving: 375 km

Accommodation: Nata Lodge or similar – permanent safari tents with ensuite bathrooms, pool & bar.

Day 11 Makgadikgadi Pans

Very early morning departure to go to Planet Baobab near Gweta to embark on an expedition to Ntwetwe Pan, one of the two major pans that make up the Makgadikgadi Pans and amongst the largest salt pans in the world.

Ntwetwe Pan was fed by the Boteti River until it was left permanently dry following the construction of the Mopipi Dam, which provides water for the diamond mines at Orapa. This has left an extraordinary lunar landscape of rocky outcrops, dunes, islets and channels. Uniquely adapted desert species such as bat-eared foxes, springbok, kori bustards and the fascinating meerkats can be found here. Spend some time up-close and personal with the captivating meerkats to see how they interact with each other.

After lunch, visit a nearby village to get a glimpse of modern African village culture. A local guide whose knowledge has been inherited from his forefathers will introduce you to their customs and history followed by a visit to the local primary school then Kgotla, a traditional court that governs the village.

In the late afternoon, stroll with your guide through an impressive baobab grove as he explains the local ecology, geology and the unique biology of the baobabs, which are in fact not trees but the largest succulents in the world!

Driving: 200 km

Accommodation: Planet Baobab or similar – traditional huts with ensuite bathrooms pool & bar.

Day 12 Makgadikgadi Pans – Maun, Botswana

Travel to Maun, a bustling safari town and 'gateway to the Okavango Delta'. The afternoon is at leisure. You can book an optional scenic flight over the Okavango Delta to see the twisting turning waterways, channels and islands of this UNESCO World Heritage site.
